MEDDLESOMEM.D. IN MESOPOTAMIA

LONDON, July 8 .- (By Mail) .-Thère's an English surgeon named Carter who is always making trouble for himself.

Some years ago he was professo of materia medica, pharmacy and morbid anatomy, as well as curator of the museum at Grant Medical College, Bombay. Walking down the street one day, carrying all this title, he met a native suffering from a rate leg ailment, one that meant amputation at an early date, and danger to the native's life. He explained the situation to the native and offered him five rupees for the privilege of performing the amputation that afternoon. The native grabbed at the bargain and his life was saved.

The Crowds Came. But the next morning Carter was awakened by a congregation of halt, maimed, and blind natives outside his house, all clamoring for the opportunity to earn five rupees. The dispatch of Indian troops to Mesopotamia resulted in the appear-ance there of Major Robert M. Carsince there of Major Robert M. Car-ter, Indian medical service. Very soon he was in trouble with the D. A. and Q. M. G. for instaling, long after his insistence had been frowned upon, that medical conditions must be made rest and said I would get his hospital ship taken away from him for a med-dlesome, interfering faddist." This is the language attributed to the D. A. and Q. M. G. in the report of the royal commission on the Meso-potomia mess.

this way, but for the fact that by the *time he had got this official into this frame of mind, the noise had reached Sir John Nixon, commander-in-chief,
